

Student: Privacy Statement

The Cheadle and Marple College Network is committed to protecting your privacy. This Privacy Statement explains how we collect, use and share your personal information, and your rights in relation to the personal information we hold. The Cheadle and Marple College Network is the controller of all personal information held by our colleges, and is subject to the Data Protection Act (2018) and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) 2018.

This Privacy Statement relates to students studying full time or part time at either The Cheadle College or Marple Sixth Form College. We may collect, use and share your personal information in order to carry out our public task to provide education and training to you.

Information data we collect and how we use it

The categories of personal information we collect, hold and share include:

- Personal information (including name, unique learner number, address and contact details, previous address, employment status, your eligibility for discretionary support funding, emergency contact/parent or carer details, photographs and other media)
- Attendance information (such as sessions attended, number of absences and absence reasons)
- Educational records information (such as assessment grades, predicted grades, behavioural sanctions, targets set and achieved)
- Prior educational records information (such as previous qualifications attained and grades)
- Browsing history on our IT networks
- CCTV recordings and images

We may also collect, store and use information about you that falls into 'special categories' of more sensitive personal data. This may include information relating to:

- Characteristics (such as residency status, nationality, date of birth, and including special category data such as ethnicity, gender, religious beliefs and sexual orientation)
- Whether you have any criminal convictions or pending criminal convictions
- Medical information (such as relevant medical or health conditions)
- Special educational needs information (such as special educational needs declarations, disability details, details of additional learning support requirements and whether you are in receipt of any additional support from The Cheadle and Marple College Network)

The majority of the personal information you provide to us is necessary for us to fulfil our role as a college (public task) and contract with you to provide educational services tailored to your needs. Failure to supply this information may mean that we are unable to provide the support you require and may be unable to admit you onto one of our study programmes.

Data is also collected to ensure that we are able to receive funding to provide education services and failure to provide information will mean that we may be unable to enrol you onto one of our study programmes. Some information is provided to us on a voluntary basis. We will inform you if you must provide certain information to us or if you have a choice to do this.

We may obtain information from third parties, such as your previous school or the local authority where applicable, ensuring continuity of support for those with additional learning or wellbeing needs and monitoring of safeguarding concerns.

- External software suppliers who provide the systems we use to track learning and progress
- Awarding organisations to allow us to claim certification
- The Association of Colleges and other specialist research and analysis services

We do not share information about our students with anyone unless it is necessary and in line with the lawful basis for processing listed above, or with the consent of the student concerned. Where data is routinely shared, a data processing agreement will be established to ensure the protection of students' information.

Data Sharing with the Department for Education

For the purposes of relevant data protection legislation, the DfE is the data controller for personal data processed by the Education and Skills Funding Agency (ESFA). Your personal information is used by the DfE to exercise its functions and to meet its statutory responsibilities, including under the Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 and to create and maintain a unique learner number (ULN) and a personal learning record (PLR). Your information will be securely destroyed after it is no longer required for these purposes.

Your information may be used for education, training, employment and well-being related purposes, including for research. The DfE and the English European Social Fund (ESF) Managing Authority (or agents acting on their behalf) may contact you in order for them to carry out research and evaluation to inform the effectiveness of training. Your information may also be shared with other third parties for the above purposes, but only where the law allows it and the sharing is in compliance with data protection legislation.

Further information about use of and access to your personal data, details of organisations with whom we regularly share data, information about how long we retain your data, and how to change your consent to being contacted, please visit:
